Ahmednagar College, spread across a fifty-acre verdant campus, offers multi-faculty education through its 22 UG and 17 PG departments apart from the six research centers. The College is a center for competent education with its focus on research, committed staff, excellent infrastructure, cosmopolitan atmosphere, rich library and plenteous extra-curricular activities. Among the teaching staff 70% hold research degrees. Many research projects financed by CSIR, ISRO, DST, UGC and BCUD are underway. The College has collaborations with industries, government bodies and research institutions including an exchange program with Regensburg University, Germany. The College was awarded ‘A’ grade by the NAAC, Bangalore in the year 2004. This year the College is in the process of being re-accredited by NAAC.

The College has both Junior as well as Senior wings. Every year around 2000 students are admitted to the Junior college and in excess of 4500 students are admitted to the senior college. The College has 44 teachers at junior college and 140 at senior college.

Prominent Features:

- Well-stocked Library with over 2,00,000 books including text books, reference books, rare books, journals and periodicals and also access to E-Journals. In addition it has special collections such as Jambekar collection, Patwardhan collection, Dnyanodaya collections, museum and archives.
- Spacious infrastructure with several classrooms and well equipped laboratories for efficient teaching and learning process.
- A syndicate room, two well equipped conference halls.
- 22 under graduate academic departments and 17 post graduate departments in the disciplines of Arts, Commerce and Science as well as professional courses like B.B.A, B.C.A and Biotechnology.
- M.Sc course in Bio-technology and M.A. in Psychology will be launched in June 2011.
- The institute has six research centres, viz., Chemistry, Physics, Zoology, Commerce, Geography and Marathi.
- Three departments, Physics, Chemistry and Zoology, have received DST funds under FIST scheme.
- The campus has excellent sports facilities with dedicated playing areas for Volleyball, Basket ball, Cricket, Hockey, Football and Gymnasium.
- The teaching faculty is highly qualified and experienced with more than 70% with Ph.D. qualification.
- More than 80% staff are actively involved in research activity. They have undertaken major or minor research projects funded by various agencies such as UGC, DST, MOE, ISRO, BCUD, University of Pune.
- Every year the College organize at least two district level, two state level and one national level seminars / workshops/conferences funded by University of Pune / UGC/DST.
- The institute has 05 boys hostel and 03 girls hostel which accommodate 400 boys and 300 girls. It also has a well-furnished Guest House. Further, the College has a few residential facilities for teaching faculty and non-teaching staff.
- The College publishes an annual magazine called "Pratibimb" and a biannual newsletter called "The Chronicle". The College magazine of the year 2010 was the recipient of the Best Magazine in Ahmednagar awarded by University of Pune.
- The College has an Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) for monitoring quality sustenance and enhancement in Academic and Administration.
- Certificates Courses in Medical Instrumentation, Computer Applications, Mushroom Cultivation, BPO, Hindi Translation, Functional English & C++
- Other facilities include YCMOU study centre, Student counseling centre, Career guidance cell, Remedial coaching centre, Gandhian study centre, Pathway cell for higher education funded by Ford Foundation, & Resource Centre for Physically Challenged Persons.
- The College has pioneered the National Service Scheme (NSS) which undertakes various community and extension programs.
- Separate NCC wing for boys and girls.

Mr. Philip Barnabas
Secretary
B.P.H.E. Society

Dr. R. J. Barnabas
Principal Ahmednagar College